“ Walt, and Children, everyone is in my thoughts and prayers. I want to try and come to be with everyone, with the weather the way it is now, I don't drive anymore like I once did. If I don't get to be with everyone, you will be in my prayers. One day we will be with our loved ones again, where God has taken to their Heavenly home, where there is no more sickness and pain. God Bless everyone.
