“ Sorry kevin about your mom. GOD WILL BLESS YOU BECAUSE YOU HONORED YOUR MOTHER. I remember you sitting in the breakroom talking to her. Or asking about her to the caretaker. This same God will see you through

“ Dear Yearout Family,

Andy and I are so very sorry for the loss of your precious mama & grandma. She was like a breath of fresh air to be around, always loving & kind. While it's hard to see them go, I hope you are able to take comfort knowing she's at peace, safe & healed in the arms of our Lord and you'll see her again in God's perfect timing. We'll be keeping your family in our prayers.

*Love in Christ, your neighbors & friends,
Jane & Andy Pfau*

“ Flowers for Mawmaw. 🦋

These were the flowers she smelled as she laid in her bed peacefully surrounded by us. The windows were cracked open with a soft early summer breeze blowing in and the birds chirping, not a cloud in the sky. She was always the star of the show, the matriarch of the family, so feisty and always had her unlimited stashes of salt water taffy nearby. She taught me love, how to be a strong independent woman and to always speak up- even if I have to yell, for myself. She was the definition of Appalachian grit and a polio survivor. She taught me how to make chicken 'n dumplin's and cornbread by hand, the way she was taught. Her curls were the most beautiful natural locks even to her last moments. Her love of music stayed with her and I believe healed her soul during the hard times of her dementia. Grandmothers are forever, she was so special and I'm so incredibly grateful I was able to be with her as she passed. Margie, 92 years, what a beautiful life you had! ❤️
