I am still missing "dad".. He will forever remain in my heart! I think about him often and laugh to myself about a lot of things he said and did. Still doesn't seem real that he is gone...I hope he at least felt the love from our crew. We definitely loved him more than he realized. Rest in sweet peace Sparks... you'll never ever be forgotten.

“ We started talking under what was a very sad circumstance for both of us. Mark became a very good friend and we could talk just about anything and never think any less of the other. Sending prayers for his brothers and their families, and his co-workers and friends as they remember Mark. He didn't deserve a lot of what life threw at him but he had no choice but to handle it and try to move on. Thankful for his friendship even though for a short few years. I will miss talking to you Mark. Rest in Peace my dear friend.
