“ I never met Mark but his sister Ann is my best friend. I shared cards and text messages with Mark for quite a while. He called me sister Ruth. I admired his humor and strength he showed during his difficult time and I'm sure God welcomed him home with open arms.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of the family in the loss of Mark. We have been blessed by knowing him, his parents (Calvin & Joan), son Tim who worked a summer or two at Consol (one of my best summer hires) and daughter Alisha and her wonderful singing voice at the Pine Grove Church a "few" years ago.

“ My deepest condolences to each member of mark's family. mark and i were in the same grades there at Central and then went on to BHS and graduation. I had seen Mark a few times after and the last time I saw him and spoke with him was at the Coal Show in Brushfork, 2019. So, R.I.P. Mark
