“ I have always known Mary as Aunt Mary. I was Uncle Jackies Niece. My mom (Ruby Ballard) and I spent time going to see Aunt Mary and going shopping. After mom died I tried to keep up with Mary and her whereabouts, the last time I got to see her my son Shane and I found her at bluelfield manor. When I went the next time, they told me she wasn't there any longer thats all they would tell me. I did not know where to look then, and I hated to find her this way. One think for sure my mother and family loved her dearly, she was a wonderful wife to Uncle Jackie, sister-in-law and aunt. I can see her now in heaven with mom, having coffee and chatting. I send my deepest sympathy to her family. We will always remember her, feel free to call me at 304-716-1070, She will be missed.
