“ Dearest Stone and family, Charles and I would like to express our heartfelt sympathies to you and your family. We have had you all in our prayers all week and want you to know that our hearts go out to you all, especially your dad, during this time. It is so very hard to give up your mother, but when you know that she is with the Lord as your mother is, you can have that " peace that passes all understanding." We all send our love to you, The McLeods
