

Mary Vickers

January 25, 2012

Bluefield, WV- Mary Angelelli Vickers, 90, formerly of Bluefield, Virginia, departed this life Wednesday, January 25, 2012. A devoted wife and mother, she was born December 29, 1921 in Cherokee, WV, the first child of Italian immigrants, the late Angelo Angelelli and the late Teresa Lupi Angelelli. She was Salutatorian of the Northfork High School graduating class of 1940. She traveled extensively with her family and husband, the late Frank Vickers, during his 30 year Army career. They settled in Bluefield, VA, to be close to family. As an active member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Bluefield, WV, Mrs. Vickers served on St. Ann's Altar Guild, as a Eucharistic Minister, and as President of DCCW. She was also a member and President of Bluefield, Virginia Women's Club. In their retirement, the couple resettled at Claytor Lake for more than a decade, and Mrs. Vickers relocated to Richmond after her husband's death in 1999. She was preceded in death, also, by her grandson, Jason Rooker, and brothers, Pete Angelelli and Fernando Angelelli. Survivors include a sister, Linda Angelelli of Bluefield, WV; three daughters and sons-in-law, Fran and Greg Rooker of Claytor Lake, Valerie and Randy Hostetler of Glen Allen, and Shirley and Steve Conley of Midlothian; seven grandchildren and two step-grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. In lieu of flowers the family wishes that gifts be made to The Jason Foundation (to help people with brain injuries and their families) at PO Box 430, Radford, VA - 24143 and /or the American Diabetes Association at PO Box 11454, Alexandria, VA ?" 22312, in honor of her grandson, Chris Conley. “ To the family of Mary: We were deeply saddened to hear of Mary's passing. We were dear friends and shared many good times together and have sent Christmas cards for many years even though we had both moved away from Bluefield. What a pleasure it was to know both Mary and Frank. May they both rest in peace. With our sympathy and prayers at this very sad time. Eleanor and Ed Shaffrey Charlottesville, VA
