“ Dear Matthew's family, I wanted to say how very sorry I am for your loss and wanted to offer my condolences. The bible refers to death as an enemy, and having recently losing my grandfather, I can surley attest to that. I thought I would leave you a few encouraging scriptures that I thought your family would appreciate. I know they have helped me through many painful moments in my life. Psalm 139:23; Psalm 38:8; Luke 11:11-17; Jereimiah 29:11,12; and John 5:28 and 29. I hope these scriptures help ease your pain some, your son was so young. My deepest sympathies - Randi Parker

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the Deeb family during this difficult time. When I heard the news that day, I felt like a part of me died with Matt. He was a very special guy to me and I will forever cherish the memories that we shared. I'M FREE Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God has chosen for me. I took His hand when I heard him call; I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way; I've now found peace at the end of day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss; Oh yes, these things, I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow Look for the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much; Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch. Perhaps my time seems all to brief; Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief. Lift up your heart and peace to thee, God wanted me now-He set me free Author: Shannon Lee Moseley.
