“ Dear Bill and Rita, I am so sad to hear of the death of your daughter, Mandy. I know there are no words that can make the pain go away but the Lord loves you and will see you through. It has been many years since I have seen you but have always remembered you. The greatest compliment I evered received was being told I was "just like Cavie June". I will keep you in my prayers. We just lost a granddaughter two months ago, so can somewhat understand your grief. When things are better please email me if you can. I care. Love, Betty Joe
