

Meredith Ashleigh Farmer

July 7, 1982 - September 17, 2019

N. Tazewell, VA- Meredith Ashleigh Farmer, 37, of N. Tazewell, VA, died Tuesday September 17, 2019 in Kingston, Jamaica.

Mrs. Farmer was born July 7, 1982 in Roanoke, VA. She worked as a Senior Leader for ITEL BPO. She attended Midway Christian Church. Mrs. Farmer was always willing to help those in need and enjoyed volunteering at orphanages. She loved animals, especially horses and dogs.

Left to cherish her memory are her husband, Benny Farmer of N. Tazewell; daughter, Carolina Gayle Disney of Princeton, WV; very loving mother-in-law, Jerri Farmer of N. Tazewell; sister-in-law, Teresa Brown and husband Monty of Wirtz, VA; brother-in-law, William Farmer and wife Kim of Bluefield, WV, and nieces and nephews that loved her very much.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday October 5, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. at Midway Christian Church with Minister Dan Webb officiating.

The family would like to extend a very special thank you to her nephew, Matthew Brown for all of his help and thoughtfulness.

“ My family & I are heartbroken over the loss of Ashleigh. She was a wonderful friend and mother. I will always cherish the wonderful memories we made & having such an amazing friend in my life. She was a beautiful person both inside & out. Emily loved Ashleigh & always cherished her advice. She knew Ashleigh was there for her. Cameron loved her too, & he enjoyed their conversations. The Hampton family has lost a dear friend who we will always love.

“ I was very saddened to hear of the loss of Ashleigh.

In the brief time I knew her, she was a pleasure to work with and always enjoyed her being around. Ashleigh knew how to have fun and also get down to business when the time called for it.

My condolences to her family, she will be missed.
