“ Wayne and Missy. You dad was a sweet man and uncle. Uncle Mike and Aunt Judy always made us feel welcome when we would visit West Virginia when we were little. I know my dad is so sad his brother is gone. No matter what anyone says about that "Kosinar Clan" they have the biggest hearts. Your dad included. You can see it in each of their eyes. It amazes me how they all have the same eyes. Keep the good times with your dad close to your heart. It will get you through these tough times.

“ As a friend of Missy's, I would like to express sympathies to Missy and family in the loss of her dad. My dad passed on in July of this year so I understand what she is going through. My prayers are with the family. I would love to help in any way I can to help my friend Missy get through this time.
