“ To Monty and family: I know you won't remember me, but wI was younger Chris and I would double date. Mrs. Bone and Mr. Bone were so gracious to me. I will always remember the time when her boyfriend's car broke down, with no way for me to get home (we had been out on a double date), Mr. and Mrs. Bone graciously let me stay in their home until the next day when I could go home. They also (because it happened on a Saturday night), made sure I got to ride with them to church that Sunday morning. I have always been grateful, through the years I had often seen them both and we always reminisced about Chris and Monty who had grown up and married. (you were little, but such a cute little guy). I will always remember your family, and now I am praying for all of you. God bless you and wrap you all in comfort at this difficult time.

“ *Monty and Family,
I am so sorry to hear about your mom. She was always hugged me when she would see me. Your parents were great role models growing up, we were all one big family when we lived on Elm St. I hope you will find peace in knowing your mom is in heaven with your dad and there is their happily ever after. You all are in my prayers and thoughts at the time.*
