It didn't matter how long it had been since you had seen her, it was like never skipping a beat when we did cross paths (usually in Walmart). Patty was a great nurse, a delightful soul with an easy laugh and a wonderfully benign, cynical sense of humor. She brightened our shifts and our hospital is sure going to be a darker place without her. Prayers for Chrissy, Sandy and all her family, as well as for all our dear co-workers who are, like us, so very grieved to lose her.

“ One of my fondest memories of Patty is a time when we had a hospital event that she had to bring her youngest son, Drew, to. He was a little restless, so everyone around was offering to hold him. Patty insisted that she was fine and continued to hold her son throughout the entire event. Later she told me that she really didn't mind holding him the whole time. "He won't always be this little," she said, "I want to hold him as much as I can." Her comment struck me and warmed my heart.

Patty, many a night we worked together with the whole "crew" of us - me, you, Nancy, Lois, Ashley, Jesse, your mom, and others. A lot of memories were made and I am glad you are in them. You are loved by many and are greatly missed.
