“ It was with the deepest of regrets when I heard Monday of Patricia's passing. I was shocked by the news and give my sad condolences to husband Pete; son Scott and the rest of the family. Pat and I were not the closes of kin as our families seemed to be always spread across the country from one another; but there was always a place in our hearts for one another. I'll miss you sister as I do our other sister and brother Save a place for me at the big table. Your loving brother Ted (Butch).
