“ My heart broke when I learned of Pat's passing. I loved Pat we worked together for many years at Walmart, Some days I gave her rides home when we both got off at the same time. Even on her worst days of hurting with her feet, she would still toss out a smile to all who came her way. Rest in peace, Pat. May God comfort your family in all the days ahead as you watch over them from heaven1

“ Pat and I lived next door to each other until I left home after high school. I spent many a night in her family's kitchen playing Rook, and other times playing badminton in her back yard. Over the years Pat and her family watched out for my grandparents and later, my father. Pat will be missed. My prayers are with Denise and Michael.

“ I didn't know her personally, but I would always go through her line at Walmart because I thought she was the sweetest lady. We would often have little "mini" conversations. I know she is in Heaven right now rejoicing because her faith and love showed. She was a dear angel here on earth. Prayers of comfort to the family!
