“ Suzanna, My heart breaks for what you are having to experience with the loss of your loving mother. I so loved her , you could talk with her and she truly cared. I will never forget the day she prayed over me at work when I was sick and had to be taken out in a wheel chair. God has truly called one of HIS ANGELS home for her job here was done. Her job now is to watch over ALL of you from above. God Bless you all and I am here if you need me.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to your family. At times like this, we may ask, "Will all this suffering ever end?" Revelation 21:4 does assure us that "God will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore." Doesn't that sound wonderful? This is a promise from our heavenly Father. Another promise that will bring you comfort is found at Acts 24:15. It says, "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Again, I am very sorry for your loss.
