

Rachel Sue "Susie" Richmond

October 13, 1938 - May 14, 2026

Rachel Sue Richmond, 87, of Bluefield, WV, died Thursday evening, May 14, 2026 at Country View Assisted Living in Peterstown, WV.

Susie, 87, was born in Mullens, WV to Ruth Poe Richmond and James. She graduated from Gap Mill High School, Monroe Co., WV and also graduated from McClain Business School, Bluefield, VA.

Susie was a 59-year employee of the Bluefield Daily Telegraph, serving in many capacities during her long career.

She was active in The March of Dimes organization, alongside her mother, Ruth. She assisted in The Little Jimmie Campaign alongside her fellow employees, working to provide Christmas for local children. She was an active volunteer for The Sacred Heart Catholic Church Food Pantry, Clothing Closet, and she loved serving her church by assisting others.

Those who knew Susie, knew that she was a book lover and it was known that she would read 500 books or more every year. Her appearances at the Library Book Sales are well known.

She is survived by her close friends, Ron and Sherry Ciccolini and their family members; her work buddies, and the Food Pantry gang.

Per her request, there will be no funeral. A private graveside service will be held at a later date.

A special thank you is extended to the staff of Country View for the wonderful care provided to her.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Sacred Heart Catholic Church

Food Pantry, P.O. Box 608, Bluefield, WV, 24701.

“ I had the privilege of knowing Suzie Richmond when we were neighbors, when I lived on Maple Street. Suzie was a dear, sweet woman who was always there to advise me on antiques, gardening, and life in general. She will be dearly missed. Paul Rutherford
