“ My Dear Friend Randolph. Randolph was a wonderful man. He was a Loving and caring man. In which he loved his wife Irene so much. He was always there for her all of her life. He was also a Loving father to his son and his grand children and Shannon. Randolph grew to be very good friends over the past 20 years. we had many pleasant conversations while living next to each other. I respected him and he was a very intelligent man who loved to read and enjoy his home. I remember when he was 73 he put vinyl siding on his house all by his self. I was so impressed he did that. I haven't seen Randolph for some 8 or 10 years now, but a found myself thinking of him every time I go by his old home. I enjoyed helping him with anything he needed. Most important Randolph and Irene were very GODLY people. She used to play the Piano and He was the Head Usher at Trinty for years. I will miss him very much. A true Friend and Neighbor he was. I know he is with God and his Lovely Wife Irene now and all this Earthly time was just a stepping stone for him. God Bles him and all his Family. Your Buddy Keith

“ Mr. "C" as I called him when he lived across from the #3 Fire Station---where I was a Fire Fighter for the City of Bluefield. Mr. C. would often come over and visit with me. He was a good friend, neighbor, and his kindness was a great testimony. He endured the loss of his only son and his wife. When I retired I stayed in touch with him until his house was sold. My thoughts and prayers are with his twin grand-daughters and families. I will ALWAYS have some very special and fond memories of Mr. "C". My 17 years at the #3 Fire Station were made possible because of Mr. "C's" friendship.
