Sue, Sunday I went to the ornament ceremony where I received your ornament. I believe you would have loved the service. Most of the chapel was dimmed down prepared for the candles. Some wonderful scriptures was read, Beautiful prayers and music too. Eddie, Melody & baby Raylan went with me. I miss you! I also heard that same night your granddaughter danced to a song Light a Candle that same night, I don't know if it was exactly the same as the poem we received, but I believe it was the Spirit of God working there.

“ Miss you Sue. I remember when the cabbage patch dolls were all the rage. Sue tried to make Melody one and it didn't quite turn out right. It didn't matter to Melody, she packed that doll around till I couldn't sew it together anymore. I'm looking for the pic to put with it.

“ i hope you can take comfort in this old saying..... I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love.
