“ Cheri: Sometimes when things happen we wonder how much more we can stand. I know God doesn't put more on us than we can bear, but you sure have had your share of sorrow lately. “ I am so saddened to hear of Robbie's Passing. Although I have not seen him in years, the memories I have of him are very clear. I remember the closeness that he had with his brothers, and how he talked about his Mom (knowing how much he loved her) and how he always talked about his little sister Lucy and how beautiful she was. He cared about his friends, and when you seen him- his smile would lite the room. If you knew him, you knew he loved his family. May God embrace each of you and wrap his arms around you giving you peace and comfort during this most difficult time. RIP Robbie- You will never be forgotten!

“ Poem of Life Life is but a stopping place, A pause in what's to be, A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity. We all have different journeys, Different paths along the way, We all were meant to learn some things, but never meant to stay... Our destination is a place, Far greater than we know. For some the journey's quicker, For some the journey's slow. And when the journey finally ends, We'll claim a great reward, And find an everlasting peace, Together with the Lord. Praying for you during this time of sorrow and loss. Cheri, God Bless you all, and give your hearts peace. Rachel King-Rozzel (Freda Williams sister)
