“ *Bruce Remines
Robert served as best man at my wedding forty one years ago.
Unfortunately, we drifted apart
.High school with Robert will always be some of my fondest memories. His wonderful mother Nancy always realized that our wayward adventures were the result of a joint effort .Thanks for being the best mother Robert could have ever had. Rest in peace old friend.,*

“ So very sad to hear of Robert's passing. Prayers for strength and comfort for Robert's wife and his mother . Have known Robert since elementary school. Mrs. Trenton was one of the best teachers I've ever had. Yes, Robert never had a bad word to say about anyone. What a great basketball player he was - 1973 was a great year. So many good memories of times together from way back. Rest in peace dear friend Robert
