“ I've known Rodney since we were students at Giles High School in Pearisburg Va. Rodney became a member of my family when he married my sister Cathy. He was a wonderful brother-in-law, husband and father. He displayed unending courage during his nearly 12 year battle with cancer. The world has lost an amazing person, but Heaven has gained an angel. I know that Rod is reunited with his family that has gone before him, and that he is patiently waiting for his family and friends to join him in Heaven one day. I am a better person for having known Rodney. He will be missed by all that knew him.
