“ Judy, we are so sorry to hear of Roger's passing. I know you all have had a long, hard battle, but you know he is now resting in peace. Sorry, I couldn't come to the service, but got the girls delivered to Chris so they could come. Take care.

“ Judy and Family: God has come back for yet another angel. Remembering the times that we did have together, mostly those like this moment. We will see him again one day. But for now, cry when you feel the tears, laugh when something makes your memories, but most of all our love continues no matter where or what happens. Let God guide you, the valleys dont stay forever, keep climbing that mountain. My prayers will be with you. Trusting God will grant you peace, and in the days to come that the grief and burdens become lighter..... In Christ, Connie

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. I just now found out , read it on facebook. He is in a better place now with no pain, but knowing that doesn't take away your pain. I wish it would. I know you will always miss him and again, I am so sorry. My prayers are with you all. Kay Harrison
