“ I first met sister and brother Holcolm when my husband, Warren, and I moved to Bluefield WV. She looked my grandmother I was so close to, and I immediately adopted them as "grandma" and "grandpa". I love them both, she is a beautiful lady inside and out and I will miss her gracing my life. May she rest peacefully in the arms of our Heavenly Father and may the family be comforted by that same loving Father in this, their time of grief. My prayers are with you all.

“ My Dearest Granny, You will be so sadly missed. I can't help but to stare off into space, thinking of those sweet words you said to me when we would have our private conversations. I can still hear your whisper in my ear and feel your breath when you spoke those words so tenderly said, like only my Granny could say. I will never forget the beauty of your blue eyes, and the warmth that I could always find in them. I can still feel your delicate touch on my cheek as you kissed me good bye. I will never forget a single moment spent with you Gran, but I will always wish for one more day. I will cherish you and our many memories in my heart forever. I Love You Gran!!! You are my hero, my role model, my best friend, and my confidant. I know that you are at peace and finally resting now. I also know that the Lord was waiting for you with the best, and the prettiest set of wings that he could find. To my Pappaw, you have been such a soldier through all of this, right by her side the whole way. Thank you Pappaw for watching over her and taking such good care of my Gran. So, at ease, soldier. Your mission is accomplished and you've done an exceptionally wonderful job. I Love You Paps!!! Lots of Love and Kisses, Terrisa
