“ *Carol, Billy and Gideon, I know it's a sad time but Bill was a great man. I remember growing up at Liberty I never remember Bill not being there. Momma played the piano Pastor Lilly preached, Kathy Roberts played the organ and Bill took up the offering. I still have the bread and potato box that Bill made for Momma. You are in our prayers. I am sure if love could have kept him here on earth, he would still be here with all of you. All the years I spent growing up at Liberty Baptist, Mr. White was always busy working for and serving the Lord. Praying for you, Love in Christ, Christine Otey Buckner
